

Welding Technology

Prepare for a high paying career in Welding Technology with Vincennes University's extensive hands-on programs. Choose a one-year certificate or a two-year A.S. degree. VU emphasizes preparation for American Welding Society certifications. Graduates also have the opportunity to continue their education in a VU technology baccalaureate degree program.

- Partnership with Lincoln Electric Co. provides the latest in technology
- One of the most modern facilities in the U.S.
- AWS certifications
- Certified and experienced faculty
- Training includes: OAW, OAC, PAC, CAC-A, SMAW, GTAW, GMAW, FCAW, pipe welding, fabrication, blueprint reading and welding robotics
- Study the process and attain the skills necessary to pass stringent pre-employment testing required in the industry.
- Job placement and financial aid are available.
- No previous welding experience is necessary.

---

"Vincennes University has the latest technology to work with which is unlike any other program I have been involved with."

— Tom, Welding Tech A.S. Degree

"Vincennes University allowed me to hone my welding skills with some of the best and most technically advanced equipment and consumables available. It adequately prepared me for every challenge I have faced in the field so far."

— Jeremy, Welding Tech A.S. Degree

"My education at Vincennes University gave me the skills and confidence to go out in the workforce and acquire my welding position in the industry."

— Joe, Welding Tech A.S. Degree

---

For more information:

Michael Hastings

Welding Program Coordinator

812.888.6244

mhastings@vinu.edu

Thom Newman

Welding Instructor

812.888.6245

tnewman@vinu.edu

T

VINCENNES UNIVERSITY

www.vinu.edu