VINCENNES UNIVERSITY

AUDIO RECORDING

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Vincennes University Music Audio Recording Program is committed to offering, to a diverse student population, affordable two-year associate degrees and certificate programs in music that provide opportunities for further study and future employment in the fields of audio recording. Students will learn fundamental and transferable skills, along with concepts in musicianship and all facets of audio production. The overall goal of the program is for students to integrate the skills and knowledge acquired and to develop competencies in music and technology.

Many exciting jobs and internships await a graduate of the Audio Recording program at VU.

Recent graduates are working for such notables as Sweetwater Sound, The Lodge Studios, Warner Brothers Studios, WFIE-TV, and some have gained national notoriety on Van's Warp Tour.
